- 4.3 To ensure employees fully understand the terms on conditions of their employment. We have reviewed the common languages present in our business and will have (where possible), contracts available in the native language should this be requested by the employee.
- 4.4 Through our induction process, we ensure our employees have a full understanding our policies and the role they play in upholding them.
- 4.5 As part of our recent policy review, we updated our internal Modern Slavery policy to ensure our employees understand our commitments, their commitments and what to do if they have a concern.
- 4.6 We are a Real Living Wage Employer and are committed to paying a fair wage to all employees.

4.7 Where temporary staff may be required in our operations, we use one dedicated agency to minimise risk; they hold active memberships and accreditations to demonstrate their commitment to anti-slavery.

5. OUR APPROACH

5.1 We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery, and we are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure modern slavery is not taking place anywhere in our own business or in any of our supply chains.

5.2 We operate a number of internal policies to ensure we are operating in an ethical way, our policies are introduced to our employees during the onboarding phase and are available to all employees at all times on our internal communication platform. We continue to review our policies to ensure they are relevant and meet all current legislation.

5.3 We have an active membership with SEDEX (the Supplier Ethical Data Exchange) and conduct internal audits on our systems and practices.

5.4 We encourage openness with our employees and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken. We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of reporting in good faith their suspicion that modern slavery of whatever form is or may be taking place in any part of our own business or in any of our supply chains.

5.5 We are committed to strengthening our practices to ensure Modern Slavery does not take place in our business and we will continue to explore further opportunities to improve our approach.

The statement has been approved by our Board of Directors.

We are committed to reviewing this statement annually to ensure we uphold our responsibilities as an employer.

This policy will next be reviewed on or before 22 February 2026
